

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

HER DADDY will soon be found. Vincenzo Filette, Italian consul general at San Francisco, tells little Annie Goirza, daughter of one of the prisoners of the Argonaut mines. —International.

RIVERSIDE DRIVE under the big guns. An unusual view of the famous drive between two of the monster guns on board the battleship "Delaware" anchored in the North River. —International.

RUM HUNTERS captured a rich prize when they took the two-masted schooner M. Gardiner in lower New York harbor. The vessel carried a cargo of 200 cases of the "real stuff." —International.

SPEED is Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, America's premier ace and former racing driver's specialty. He married his bride, formerly Mrs. Cliff Durant, after a whirlwind courtship of a few months. —International.

GLIMPSES of the Forbidden City of Peking and the palace of the deposed boy Emperor, indicated by arrow, are shown this week in the International News reel at Loew's Columbia.

Official Navy Photographer.

THE TODDLE AND THE SHIMMIE yield to the latest ballroom craze—the gyroscope dance. The dancer wears a gyroscope, a balancing device, keeping the dancer absolutely upright. —International.

RIGHT ON THE SPOT The Times cameraman caught "Ty" Rauber, captain of the Central High School football team and team quarterback, in the act of spoiling what otherwise might have been a perfect tackle on the part of Gene Casey, star tackle. This remarkable photograph shows Captain Rauber just as he slipped from Casey's grasp. —Times Staff Photographer.

THE TRAGIC DEATH of Roscoe Searles, burnt to death in his racing car in the 500-mile classic in Kansas City on Saturday, has saddened lovers of speed throughout the country. —International.

OH, WELL, what else could you expect of a Boston child. A poet at six, Josephine Blatt, daughter of William Blatt, of Boston, Mass., is hailed as a prodigy even in her native city. —International.

A NEW PLAN for the U. S. Government's financing ship operations has been announced by Thomas L. Clear, of Washington, treasurer of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. —International.

ARE GOLDEN NOTES of his voice are transmitted into bank notes at the rate of $2,500 a performance. Feodor Chaliapin, Russian opera star, will receive that sum at the Metropolitan Opera House this winter. —International.

APPROVAL of the soldiers' bonus has been asked of President Harding by Hanford MacNider, head of the American Legion. MacNider called at the White House yesterday to see the President. —International.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Released by Universal Film Exchanges